

A Christian Response to Violence

Monday, November 5, 2018

Diocese of Harrisburg
4800 Union Deposit Road
Harrisburg, PA 17111

The day begins at 9:00 AM and ends at 3:00 PM.
Lunch will be provided.

This year's Day of Dialogue will focus on how Christians can respond to violence in society. The day will feature three speakers who will each discuss a different aspect of the topic:

- Christian Response to Gun Violence - Bryan Miller - Executive Director of "Heeding God's Call to End Gun Violence" Philadelphia, PA
- Christian Response to the Violence of Racism - Rev. Dr. Gayle Fisher-Stewart - Assistant Pastor at Calvary Episcopal Church, Washington, DC. Founder of the Center for the Study of Faith in Justice.
- Christian Response to Violence - Peace and Non-Violence - Michael Long - Associate Professor of Religious Studies and Peace and Conflict Studies at Elizabethtown College.

The day will also offer prayer together according to the three traditions represented by LARC, as well lunch together and time for dialogue and discussion.

COST OF THE DAY (includes lunch):

$30.00 — single registration

$50.00 — two registrations from the same parish

$20.00 each — three or more registrations from the same parish
