

Lutheran-Anglican-Roman Catholic Day of Dialogue
Division in Society, Division in the Church:
Healing and Hope for the 21st Century

Monday, October 28, 2019

Diocese of Harrisburg
4800 Union Deposit Road
Harrisburg, PA 17111

The day begins at 9:00 AM and ends at 3:00 PM.
Lunch will be provided.

This year's Day of Dialogue will focus on how Christians can respond to political and theological division in society. The day will feature speakers from the three LARC traditions who will each discuss a different aspect of the day's topic:

- "Ecumenism's Promise for this Moment in our World" – Dr. Maria Erling, Professor of Modern Church History and Global Mission, United Lutheran Seminary
- "Approaching Adversaries with Love: Reshaping Debate to Achieve Wisdom not Wins" – Mr. Eric Failing, Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference
- "Toward a Pastoral Theological Phenomenology of Christian Unity" – The Very Rev. Dr. Amy Doyle Welin, Dean of St. Stephen's Episcopal Cathedral, Harrisburg.

The day will also include prayer according to the three LARC traditions, lunch together, a panel discussion, as well as time for dialogue and discussion.

COST OF THE DAY (includes lunch):

$30.00 — single registration

$50.00 — two registrations from the same parish

$20.00 each — three or more registrations from the same parish
