

EVANGELISCH-LUTHERISCHER KIRCHENKREIS

ANSBACH-WÜRZBURG

GERMANY QUICK FACTS

Capital City: Berlin

Population: 84 million

Size: 138,000 sq. mi.

Official language: German

History: For millenia, what we now call Germany was a loose connection of dozens of different territories with no true unifying government (this was the Holy Roman Empire into which Martin Luther was born). The German states were eventually united in 1871. Following two world wars, Germany was divided again, this time into democratic West Germany and communist East Germany. Since the end of the Cold War, Germany has existed as a federal parliamentary republic.

The Ansbach-Würzburg Kirchenkreis (AWK) traces its roots back over 500 years to the Protestant Reformation and Martin Luther. While the Upper Susquehanna Synod's (USS) relationship with AWK began much later (in December of 1996) we share a common theological and cultural ancestry. In 2001 the first official partnership agreement was signed by then Bishop Bezzel and Bishop A. Donald Main at the Bishop's Retreat in Wellsboro. The partnership has since been renewed multiple times, most recently at the 2022 Synod Assembly. This relationship has led to several youth and choir exchanges as well as multiple visits of USS and AWK representatives to each other's territories.

Please pray for our global partners. If you wish to join the USS Global Ministry team, email annzimmerman@hotmail.com

EVANGELISCH-LUTHERISCHER KIRCHENKREIS

ANSBACH-WÜRZBURG

GERMANY QUICK FACTS

Capital City: Berlin

Population: 84 million

Size: 138,000 sq. mi.

Official language: German

History: For millenia, what we now call Germany was a loose connection of dozens of different territories with no true unifying government (this was the Holy Roman Empire into which Martin Luther was born). The German states were eventually united in 1871. Following two world wars, Germany was divided again, this time into democratic West Germany and communist East Germany. Since the end of the Cold War, Germany has existed as a federal parliamentary republic.

The Ansbach-Würzburg Kirchenkreis (AWK) traces its roots back over 500 years to the Protestant Reformation and Martin Luther. While the Upper Susquehanna Synod's (USS) relationship with AWK began much later (in December of 1996) we share a common theological and cultural ancestry. In 2001 the first official partnership agreement was signed by then Bishop Bezzel and Bishop A. Donald Main at the Bishop's Retreat in Wellsboro. The partnership has since been renewed multiple times, most recently at the 2022 Synod Assembly. This relationship has led to several youth and choir exchanges as well as multiple visits of USS and AWK representatives to each other's territories.

Please pray for our global partners. If you wish to join the USS Global Ministry team, email annzimmerman@hotmail.com