

USSWO Day of Learning and Renewal

Brushstrokes of Faith and Strength

The USS Women's Organization invites you to join us on Saturday, April 26th at Salem Lutheran Church, Selinsgrove for a day of Learning and Renewal while helping Women at Risk Survivors. The event will begin with registration at 9:30 am. Following an opening at 10:00 am, Judy Mummau will lead everyone in painting a picture of three crosses on a hillside during sunset (see picture on flyer). Lunch will be provided. After lunch, Judy will paint a picture and tell a Bible story. The day will end around 2:00 pm with a closing. Throughout the day, there will be a pop-up shop open where you can buy items and gifts that will support the Women at Risk Survivors International. The cost for the day will be $25.00 which includes all of your painting supplies and lunch. Pre-registration and payment are due by April 1st.

About the Artist: Judy Mummau is a Christian artist from central Pennsylvania. Her enthusiasm for art and encouraging people with the love of Jesus is evident in her painting classes and ministry. Judy is a pastor's wife, has three teenage children and helps on their family farm. Having led over 770 classes, she regularly travels to lead painting party classes for all ages. Judy proudly says, "Anyone can be an artist. It's not fine art, it's fun art."

Women at Risk Survivor Pop-Up: Women at Risk International unites and educates to create circles of protection around those at risk through culturally sensitive, value-added intervention projects. This pop-up will help raise awareness about the struggles that women & men face. Items for sale may include jewelry, ornaments, and spa items of various prices. Cash or credit card will be accepted at the event. If you would like to learn more about this organization, you may visit their website: warinternational.org
